headcoach

CLINT BROWNE

Second Season

Clint Browne enters his second season as head men's soccer coach at Christian Brothers University after leading the Bucs to a 9-6-3 record last year and a No. 3 seed in the GSC Tournament. The 2004 Bucs finished the season with a 5-1 record in the GSC and were ranked 30th nationally in team goals against average.

Browne previously served as the head men's soccer coach at Lambuth University in Jackson, TN where he guided the team to a 22-13-4 record over two seasons, finishing 14-4-2 his last season and ranked as high as No. 16 nationally in the NAIA poll. The ranking was the first time the soccer program had been ranked in school history.

During his stint at Lambuth, Browne had two players named All-American and four named Academic All-American. He was named the Mid-South Conference Coach of the Year his last season, as well as the Region Coach of the Year.

Browne served as the assistant women's soccer coach at the University of Memphis (1999-2000), helping to lead the team to its second-most successful season. He served as an assistant coach at CBU under Gareth O'Sullivan during the 1998 and 1999 seasons and was an assistant with the Memphis men's team during the 1995-1996 seasons.

A 1995 graduate of the University of Memphis, Browne led the Tigers to their only NCAA Tournament appearance in 1993, serving as a team captain that season. The team shared the Conference Championship with Saint Louis twice during his tenure. Browne played on two Tennessee Under-23 Olympic Development Teams that advanced to the national finals.

Browne played professionally for the New Orleans Riverboat Gamblers in 1995-97, serving as team captain each year. He also played a season in the Irish Premier League for the Sligo Rovers in 1997-98.

A native of Birmingham, England, Browne married the former Kemm McDonald in March of this year.
