

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Christian Brothers (Fratres Scholarum Christianarum, F.S.C.), a community of vowed religious living together as a witness to the Gospel message, were founded by St. John Baptist De La Salle in 1680 in Rheims, France, in answer to the serious need for the Christian education of the sons of poor and working-class families. His efforts proved successful, and in order to expand the influence of his endeavors, together with his Christian Brothers, he founded the first schools for the training of teachers in Europe. Presently, the Brothers form a teaching congregation numbering 7,800 members in more than 70 countries. In the United States, the Brothers operate seven colleges and universities and 100 schools located in 23 states and the District of Columbia.

While the Brothers have determined the character and academic growth of the University for over one hundred years, they now share a significant aspect of those roles with dedicated secular faculty and staff who embrace the tradition of responding to the educational, personal, and spiritual needs of young adults. Christian Brothers University of Memphis continues the Lasallian tradition of innovation and flexible responsiveness to the spirit and demands of contemporary society while remaining faithful to its religious and academic heritage. The following Mission and Goals statements were adopted by the Board of Trustees January 31, 1995.

HISTORICAL SKETCH

Christian Brothers College was founded November 19, 1871, by members of the Institute of the Brothers of Christian Schools, a Roman Catholic religious teaching congregation. The Brothers came to Memphis at the request of the people and clergy of the city, a move which culminated more than a decade of efforts to persuade the Brothers to open a college in Memphis. Brother Maurelian was appointed the first President.

Brother Maurelian's two terms as President totalled 33 years. During his presidency, the Brothers purchased the 612 Adams Street building which was to house the college until 1940 when the college moved to its present location at Central Avenue and East Parkway South. The college functioned as a combined elementary school, high school, and college, granting both high school diplomas as well as Bachelor's and Master's Degrees from 1871 to 1915, when the college division was suspended. Elementary classes were dropped in 1922, and the institution operated as a high school only until 1940. Reopened at that time as a Junior College, the college began granting Associate of Arts Degrees in 1942.

In 1953, the decision was made to expand the Junior College into a four-year institution to more adequately serve the needs of the community. The four-year curriculum began with degrees in Business Administration and Electrical Engineering, with the first graduates in recent times receiving their degrees in 1955.

The curriculum was soon expanded to meet the needs for new programs in the fields of Mechanical Engineering and Chemistry. Through the ensuing years the following degree programs were added: Biology, Civil Engineering, Mathematics, English, Physics, Chemical Engineering, History, Psychology, Natural Science, Engineering Physics, Computer Science, and Religion and Philosophy. Teacher Preparation Programs in Secondary Education were added in 1969. An accelerated Evening Program offering a degree in Business Administration was added in 1978 to meet the needs of the adult student, and the Applied Psychology degree was added in 1999.

Programs at the graduate level were reinstated in 1987 with the Master's program in Telecommunication and Information Systems. The Master of Business Administration and the Master of Engineering Management were added in 1989. A Master of Education was added in 1997, and in 2001 a Master of Arts in Teaching and a Master of Science in Educational Leadership were added.

Christian Brothers University became coeducational in 1970. Currently, women make up approximately fifty-five percent of the student body. Officially, Christian Brothers College became Christian Brothers University in June of 1990.

In addition to Sunday liturgies, provision is made throughout the year for special interdenominational worship services, welcoming people of all faiths and religious traditions.

Personal and communal growth is encouraged through a variety of prayer experiences, retreats, and pastoral counseling to assist students especially in the development of their respective gifts for the pursuit of peace and social justice within a multi-religious and multi-cultural world.
