Instructions:

Your FAFSA was selected by the U.S. Department of Education to verify high school completion status. Please provide one of the following documents that indicate your high school completion status when you begin college in 2019-2020. The processing of your Federal Student Aid cannot be completed until one of these documents is received and reviewed by the Student Financial Aid Office.

A. Acceptable Documentation

- A copy your high school diploma.
- If you completed secondary education in a foreign country, a copy of your “secondary school leaving certificate” or other similar document.
- A copy of your final official high school transcript indicating the date when your diploma was awarded.
- A state certificate or transcript received after you passed a State authorized examination that the State recognizes as the equivalent of a high school diploma (GED test, HiSET, TASC, or other State-authorized examination).
- An academic transcript that indicates you successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor’s degree.
- If you were homeschooled in a state where state law requires you to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential.
- If you were homeschooled in a state where state law does not require you to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript or the equivalent, signed by your parent or guardian that lists the secondary school courses you completed and includes a statement that you successfully completed a secondary school education in a homeschool setting.

If you are unable to obtain the documentation listed above must contact the financial aid office.
