The information below describes typical occupations and employers associated with this major.

Understand that some of the options listed below may require additional training.

Moreover, you are not limited to these options alone when choosing a possible career path.

Description of Mathematics/Computer Science

A degree in Mathematics and/or Computer Science provides you with a broad base of knowledge and skills and enables you to secure attractive employment upon graduation. During your time at CBU develop strong problem solving skills that you can apply in business, science and engineering. The department also prepares you for success in graduate school should you wish to pursue an advanced degree.

In Mathematics, you can earn either a Bachelor of Arts degree or a Bachelor of Science. We also encourage you to use your electives to choose a minor in any area currently offered by Christian Brothers University. The minor allows you to acquire knowledge in an area of particular interest to you. The Computer Science program combines computer related courses from the Schools of Business, Engineering, and Sciences. You can select a program option in bioinformatics, forensics, business or engineering. Each consists of a set of carefully selected, computer related courses.

Whatever path you decide to take, the Mathematics and Computer Science faculty will guide you with dedication. They are experienced teachers and provide a rewarding academic experience for you.
