BUC BANNER COMPETITION

Monday, February 13 • 11:00 am | Alfonso Dining Hall

Get pumped and get creative! All organizations that register to participate in homecoming will be given the opportunity to participate in a "Buc Banner Competition". This competition will be a chance for all organizations to compete in the banner that best illustrates this year's Homecoming Theme: CBU Through the Decades

Organization Requirements

Organizations must turn in their respective banner to the Office of Student Engagement by 1:00 p.m. on Friday, February 10.

Rules & Procedures:

- All organizations must use the banners provided by Student Engagement and can be picked up starting January 30.
- Organization's design may be either horizontal or vertical in design.
- All banner content must be tasteful and in line with the mission of CBU. The Office of Student Engagement reserves the right to disqualify any banner, disqualify organizations from participating in Homecoming, and to refer any person or organization to the conduct process.

GENERAL RULES

Stage Time

- All groups are limited to 9 minutes on the stage. Time begins when the first person walks onto the stage and ends when the last person and all of the props are off of the stage markings.
- Performance and stage times must be strictly adhered to during performances. Groups will be officially timed during performances and penalty points will be assessed if groups exceed the allotted time during their performance.
- Penalty points will be assessed for seconds over the allotted time. Groups will be penalized 1 point per second for up to 20 seconds and if a group exceeds 20 seconds, an additional 5-point penalty will be added. A maximum penalty for exceeding the performance time limit will be 25 points.
- Hand-held props will only be allowed if they were approved with the costume by Student Life. No stage props are allowed on stage unless approved prior to the event.
- Groups will have full access and use of the stage space, and they may use it for practices by reserving the space through the Student Event Management System.
- Any participant that is found in possession of alcoholic beverages or is found to be intoxicated during any rehearsal or performance will cause their group to be disqualified.

Songs & Accompaniment

- Each group will be allowed to perform an unlimited number of songs in their allotted time. Groups must perform all songs that they turn in. New songs may not be added after the lists are approved by Student Life unless an organization is asked to drop a song. The organization can only add the same number of songs that they were asked to drop.
- If musicians/ instruments are utilized, they will be treated as performers. That is, they must remain within the boundaries marked on the stage, and their setup and take down time is included in the total performance time.
- Instruments are not required. If a group chooses to not use instruments, a CD track of music may be used as accompaniment. Accompaniment may not contain any background vocals.

Costumes/Props

- Costumes and any hand-held props must be approved by the Student Life Office by February 14.
- Groups will not be allowed to change costumes during the performance unless they are taking off a layer of clothing to reveal a new layer of clothing or costume.
- Any props used must not leave a residue on the performance stage. NO GLUE OR GLITTER. If materials are left on the stage after a group's performance, the cleanup must be completed by the organization before the end of the night (Midnight on February 19, 2023).

Judging

Groups will be judged by independent judges on penalty points only (based on a 100 point scale).

Judges will be judging on the following (based on a 100 point scale):

- 25% Sound — tone quality, blend, balance, ensemble, etc.
- 25%: Interpretation — expression, phrasing, style, tempo, how well the group communicates the song, etc.
- 25% Technique — rhythm, diction, harmony, synchronization, etc.
- 25% Music — selection of songs, unity of presentation, appropriateness for group, within group's musical capabilities, degree of difficulty of arrangement, etc.)
- The decisions of the judges are FINAL. There will be no appeals on the final decisions of the judges.
